MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—'Twill WARMER grow.
(If Black's) BENEATH—COLDER 'twill be;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening.

The Redmen of Ashland will indulge in a Trail on Saturday evening, July 11th.

Mr. George Pendleton Green of Mason county and Miss Sallie E. Hartley of Millersburg Precinct were married by 'Squire Selby Lilleston at Paris.

It is the unanimous opinion of every one who has priced the Watches offered by P. J. Murphy the Jeweler that he is offering them at lower prices than these goods have ever been offered. All his Watches are warranted to give satisfaction.

If you want the best possible investment for your savings, whether they be great or small, subscribe for stock in the new series of the Mason County Building Association. This institution has stood the test of more than twenty years, and its shareholders have always been gratified over the results. Books for subscription to the Twenty-first Series of Stock are now open. Apply to M. C. Russell Secretary or R. K. Hoefflich Treasurer.

Bern, to the wife of Mr. Edward Glenn, a fine daughter.

Mrs. George Schatzmann, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is much better.

The Union Trust Company has declared a dividend of 7 per cent, payable July 1st.

The Democratic 'Prowler' says this is leap year, but the difference is that the young ladies of Winchester do not loaf around the Church doors and make remarks as to how pretty the young men look as they pass out.

If you have any of the old Internal Revenue Stamps, or any old Postage Stamps, about your house, it will pay you to read the advertisement of Mr. T. L. Green in today's LEDGER. He is paying big prices in cash for the stamps in the list which he names. This is no fake.

The funeral of the late Conrad M. Rudy was quite largely attended Tuesday afternoon, the Masons and Firemen joining the procession. At the grave the Masonic funeral rites were impressively performed by the venerable William N. Howe, himself in his 82d year. The religious services were conducted by the Rev. J. S. Sims of the M. E. Church, South.

BODY FOUND.

The Remains of Mr. James E. Berry Recovered Tuesday.

Special to Public Ledger.

MEANS, Ky., June 30th.
The body of James E. Berry, who was drowned Friday afternoon while trying to cross Licking river at the railroad bridge between here and Pleasant Valley, was found this morning four miles down the river, lodged in a drift pile.

Eckhart & Son, noted divers of Cincinnati, arrived yesterday afternoon and had begun searching for the body where the drowning occurred.

Mr. Berry was one of Nicholas county's most prominent and influential citizens. His remains were interred at Carlisle this afternoon. C. T. W.

Mrs. Thomas Sapp died near Tilton a few days ago.

Mrs. Dr. McDowell has been dangerously ill in Flemingsburg for the past few days.

Stop in Traxel & Smith's and look at our Sherwood Filter. Capacity, easy operation and durability beats all.

For Pure Drugs call on Henry W. Ray, successor to Theo. C. Power, next door to Postoffice. Prescriptions a specialty.

Silverites

Fairly gloat over our Silverware—it's so rich looking they can't see why our silver isn't just as good as gold. It is better for table uses—better for knives and forks and spoons—better than gold for all these things. There isn't any such array of silverware in town as we have here—all in the latest shapes and fancies.

Silver Pitchers, Silver Cream Jugs, Silver Sugar Bowls, Silver Knives, Silver Forks, Silver Spoons, Silver Butter Dishes, Silver Pickle Jars, Silver Bonbon Dishes, Silver Tea Services, Silver Toilette Accessories, Silver this and Silver that.

There's nothing in silver that is not here, and we want you to see our silver display—Prices—They will speak for themselves.
